

This week...

Meth

*We ask one of the people who have helped make Cabaret vs Cancer a success
the same ten questions...*

1. Who are you and what do you do?

My name is Meth and for some reason people pay me to dress like a glamorous clown, insult people on a microphone and flap my gums to other peoples music. I believe the kids are calling it Drag

2. Can you list three people who are your inspiration, and why?

Lilly Savage, I grew up watching her on prime time television. How can any queer kid of the 90's not love her!

Cheating here but the entire Family Fierce. They drive me crazy like any family does but they inspire me every day.

and of course, my mum! I was raised in a matriarchy so it's no wonder I'm a cross dresser for a living

3. What would you save from your burning house?*(people, pets, legal documents and computers are safe!)

My wigs. They expensive.

4. What's your favourite meal and what drink is it washed down with?

Gin and tonic with a side of champagne washed down with tequila. The holy trinity of drag dinners.

5. What talent do you wish you had?

Any will do...

6. Where is your favourite place?

New York! They tip their drag queens there.

7. What do you do to relax?

Clue in my name...JK! Drugs are bad. Stay in school kids, make good life choices.

8. What book do you recommend everyone reads?

The bible...know your enemy.

9. What is your biggest regret?

Voting Lib Dem in 2010. Traitorous fuck wits the lot of 'em!

10. If God existed, what would you like to hear him say to you at the pearly gates?

"LOL what are you doing here?"

What else can you tell us...

So I opened my own queer space and cabaret bar in September. She's called Her Upstairs and is mere seconds from Camden Town tube station. We are open every day from 5pm with an incredible array of queer performance and drag shows plus fabulous drinks and cosy, camp decor!

Check out www.facebook.com/herupstairslondon for more details on our events.

18 Kentish Town Road, London, NW1 9NX